

Giampiero Massolo is Deputy Chairman of Mundys since March 2026 where he has also been Chairman since April 2022.

He is Chairman of Fincantieri NexTech and co-director of the Geopolitical Risk Observatory (GRO) at LUISS Guido Carli University in Rome where he is also adjunct professor of National Security and International relations studies.

He has also been President of the Italian Institute for International Political Studies – ISPI (2017 - 2024) and Fincantieri S.p.A. (2016 - 2022). A career diplomat, Ambassador Massolo was the Coordinator of the Italian Intelligence Community (2012-2016), the Prime Minister's personal representative (Sherpa) for the G8 and G20 Summits (2008-2009), the Secretary General of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (2007-2012).

He actively contributes on international and security matters to the newspapers “La Stampa” and “La Repubblica”.