AGREEMENT FOR THE SALE OF STRADA DEI PARCHI

Rome, 3 January 2011 – Atlantia S.p.A. announces that Autostrade per l'Italia SpA, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Group, has reached agreement with Toto SpA for the sale of its 60% equity interest in Strada dei Parchi SpA, the company that holds the concession to operate the A24 motorway linking Rome with L'Acquila and Teramo and the A25 Torano-Pescara motorway.

The parties have agreed a price of €89m for the 60% stake.

The share transfer is subject to ANAS finalizing change of control procedures and requirements envisaged in the Single Concession Agreement, Strada dei Parchi signing and effecting the first drawdown of funds from the project finance loan, which is being secured, to fund the company's investment programme and financial needs, and the buyer obtaining Antitrust clearance.

The formal commitments which the company has so far secured from the banks involved in the loan syndication process, which is being finalized, already cover its financial needs in full.
