ATLANTIA'S MEMBERSHIP OF DOW JONES SUSTAINABILITY INDEX CONFIRMED

CEO Castellucci: "Reconfirmation of our membership of the DJSI, for the third year running, encourages us to pursue our commitment to continued and progressive improvement of the Group's sustainability performance".

Rome, 8 September 2011 – For the third year running, Atlantia has been included in the prestigious Dow Jones Sustainability World Index for 2012. The Index selects the best enterprises in the world based on economic, environmental and social criteria. Atlantia ranks as one of the best performers in the transport and infrastructure sector, obtaining the highest possible score for Customer Relationship Management, Codes of Conduct/Compliance/Corruption & Bribery and Human Capital Development.

The Company's CEO, Giovanni Castellucci, emphasised how this result is a source of pride for Atlantia and reward for its efforts in relation to sustainability in recent years. "Reconfirmation of our membership of the Dow Jones Sustainability Index is proof of the Group's commitment in strategic areas, such as road and occupational safety, service quality, fairness and transparency in our dealings and dialogue with stakeholders, staff development and respect for the environment through reducing our impact on the areas in which we operate and energy-related initiatives. This result encourages us to pursue our commitment to continued and progressive improvement of the Group's sustainability performance".
